RUSS

Mew's News

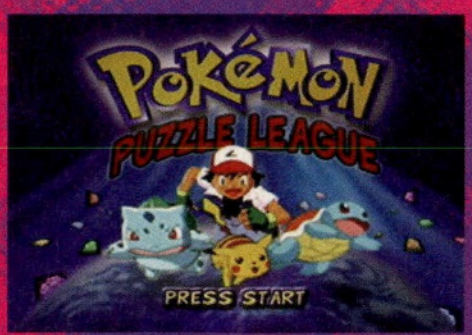
THE POKÉMON WORLD IS A NON-STOP PARTY KIND OF PLACE. SO THERE'S ALWAYS PLENTY HAPPENING FOR YOU TO CHECK OUT. MEW THE SUPER PSYCHIC POKEMON IS THE CREATURE IN THE KNOW - HERE'S HIS REPORT.

Plastic Fantastic

TO COINCIDE with the launch of the second Pokémon in the USA, Burger King is about to release a new range of Pokémon collectibles. The new Power Cards are 3D and come attached to a base, which can perform different functions. Some cards light up, whilst other make sounds or squirt water at you. The new toys are sure to be very popular so just in case you think you'll never get the chance to see one, take a look at this pic – pretty cool, we think you will agree!

Pokémon Puzzling

A NEW kind of Pokémon game is in production, which should be available early next year. Pokémon Puzzle League is a block-switching puzzle game that is extremely simple to play and a great deal of fun at the same time. There are large amounts of energy coloured blocks on a rotating grid and you must swap blocks around to match at least three blocks of the same colour. The game is also going to be available on Game Boy Color and will also link with the Transfer Pak. It should be real entertaining fun!



COME JOIN THE PARTY

RECENTLY NINTENDO held a massive games show in Japan, where it revealed to the world its new consoles, Game Boy Advance and Nintendo GameCube. Whilst promoting the new hardware, Nintendo treated visitors to video footage of a Pokémon Demo simply called Meowth's Party. In the clip, Meowth is featured playing a guitar whilst loads of other Pokémon party all around him. A Pokémon game has been promised on both systems but Meowth's Party has not been confirmed as a definite title at this time. The graphics look amazing, though, and really show off the power of the new console!

P2K

THE SECOND Pokémon movie has just hit the big screens in the USA and accompanying the box office smash is another range of promo cards including Ancient Mew. The Japanese card has been known to fetch £50 for serious collectors. Take a look at the second batch of US film promo cards and watch out for a full movie review coming soon.

Park Life

Nintendo's President Hiroshi Yamauchi has announced that a Pokémon Amusement Park will be built near Nintendo's Kyoto Headquarters in Japan. Based on Disneyworld, the park will contain rides and games based around the different Pokémon. It should be completed some time in 2001.

Pokémon Crystal

Nintendo is planning to release an updated version of Pokémon, which has been adapted to allow play over the Internet. The game, which will work with Game Boy Color and Game Boy Advance, will connect using cellular phones and will enable you to trade and battle against other Pokémon trainers. This will start in Japan and if successful, will undoubtedly make its way over the ocean to the UK.

Ill Pikachu

A new computer virus has been discovered which is aimed specifically at children using the Net. The email is very similar to the Love Bug virus, which caused havoc a few months ago, only comes with the message 'Pikachu Pokémon' and, 'Pikachu is your friend'! Anyone who receives this email should delete it immediately without opening it or it will forward to everyone in your address book and start deleting all your valuable files from your hard-drive – you have been warned!

Planes And Trains

To help promote the third Pokémon movie in Japan, Nintendo has acquired a train from Japan Railways and has kitted it out with Pokémon everywhere. Following the success of Nippon Airlines' Pokémon Jumbo, the new train will be running along routes around the inner Tokyo area for a few weeks whilst the film is on show in the cinemas.

POKÉMON STADIUM UK CHAMPIONSHIPS

ONE WET and rainy day in September the Millennium Dome went Pokémon mad for the spectacular Pokémon Adventure. Nintendo and Wizards Of The Coast got together and put on a show for Pokémon fans nationwide. The weekend event saw the UK Pokémon Stadium Championships, which was won by Darren Von Gurren, a massive trading card tournament and plenty of other Pokémon surprises. Trading card fans were treated to a special Team Rocket Promo card, whilst Pokémon videogame lovers could duel link up with Game Boys, or play Pokémon Snap and Stadium on loads of interactive units. Mew was also in the house and the queues at times to download the special Pokémon were enormous. All in all the event was a big success and the winners of the tournaments are being jetted over the world to compete in the Pokémon World Championships. Lucky them!

DVD Review

Film Title: Tarzan (Collector's Edition)
Certificate: U

When it comes to animated movies, you can always rely on Disney. Colourful characters, dazzling animation and epic adventures are all par for the course and Tarzan is no disappointment. The story of the small boy raised by jungle animals has been told hundreds of times, but this DVD really is a family treat. The animation is superb, looking vibrant on DVD, the characters are loveable and the action scenes are full of wit and imagination.

What makes this DVD superb value, though, is the amount of additional features. There's a list of extras as long as one of Tarzan's monkey-like arms, including a trivia game, music videos, interactive read-along, featurettes and even information on the animation process, plus much more. This is top class entertainment!

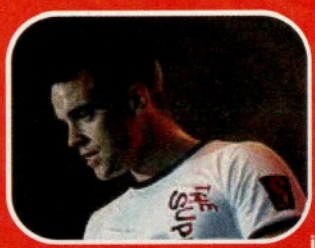
Music Reviews

Album Title: Ronan
Artist: Ronan Keating
Web site: www.ronankeating.net

The debut solo album from the Boyzone frontman should see Ronan well on his way to receiving the crown of 'King Of Pop'. The tracks range from the upbeat tones of the recent single Life Is A Rollercoaster to a (maybe too) large collection of swoonsome love songs. It may not be groundbreaking stuff, but this album is worth a listen!

4/5



Album Title: Sing When You're Winning
Artist: Robbie Williams
Web site: www.robbiewilliams.co.uk

Once again, the ego has most certainly landed... but this time, it's with more of a bump that he might have liked. Rather than taking his music in newer directions, Sing When You're Winning brings us the Robbie Williams that we've come to know and love/hate (delete as appropriate). Songs like Better Man are obviously his attempt to recapture the feeling of Angels and only Rock DJ and his duet with Kylie stand out from the crowd. It's still a cracking album though!

4/5

Single Title: I Will Love Again
Artist: Lara Fabian
Web site: www.larafabian.com

Lara Fabian is a household name in her native France and has sold over six million albums in the last two years. The port-blocking pop fans of Europe have really take to Lara's powerful singing voice and now Lara is crossing the channel to the UK. This is her debut UK single, to be released on 9 October. The single may remind us of several Eurovision Song Contest entries and is catchy with a capital 'C' and Lara certainly has the voice for it!

4/5

Single Title: Against All Odds
Artist: Mariah Carey & Westlife
Web site: www.westlife.org

Pop superstars Westlife and American sensation Mariah Carey have got together to re-record Phil Collins classic hit, Against All Odds. The single will be released on 18 September and has been tipped to go all the way to the top. The Irish boys seem to turn everything they sing into gold and this is another song which could prove to be very popular. Those of us old enough to remember the original might be a little disappointed, but this new version will certainly appeal to modern pop fanatics.

Weedle's Wicked Web Site

Name: Pokémon World: The Official Pokémon Site
URL: www.pokemon.com

When it comes to the world of Pokémon, the official site is a good solid knowledge base giving you access to news, games, merchandise, cartoons, comics and of course, an easy to use Pokédex.

The site is well laid out with fast loading and accurate information on new Poké-related stories in America. Although it mainly concentrates on American news and products, these will normally be transported to the UK later on, so by logging on you'll be able to see what's likely to be in store over the next six to twelve months.

With so much information available here, you can spend a long time on this site looking at Pokéstuff. There's plenty to keep you surfing and you'll also find links to other official sites including those of Nintendo, Wizards of the Coast and Warner Brothers.

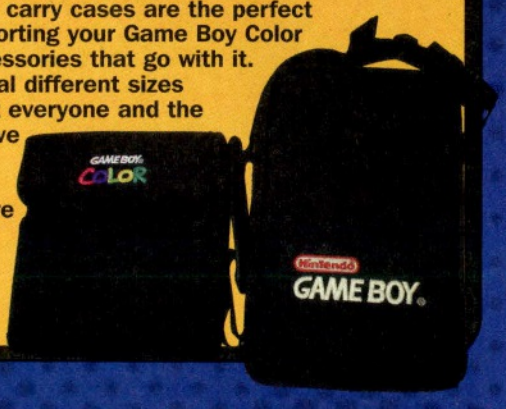
POKÉMON CARRY CASE

FROM .....PLANET DISTRIBUTION
PRICE .....FROM £4.99 - £12.99

These Pokémon carry cases are the perfect thing for transporting your Game Boy Color and all the accessories that go with it. There are several different sizes available to suit everyone and the larger cases have extra space for trading cards, games and spare batteries. Your gear will look brilliant inside one of these!

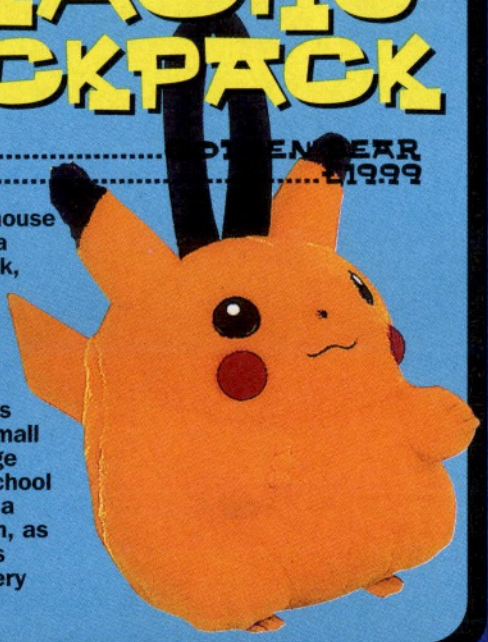


R'S GEAR

PIKACHU BACKPACK

FROM .....
PRICE £19.99

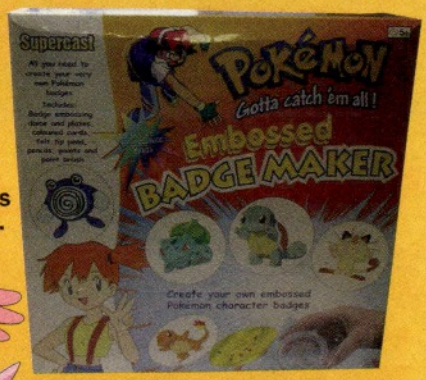
Step out of the house in style wearing a Pikachu backpack, complete with special storage area for your Game Boy. The packs look quite large, but there is actually only a small amount of storage space for your school things. This isn't a bad thing, though, as the pack remains quite light and very easy to carry!

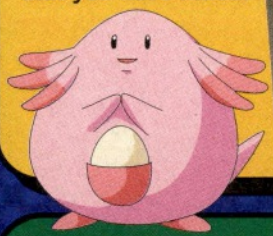


POKÉMON BADGE MAKER

FROM .....SUPERCAST

This handy little kit provides you with all the necessary equipment to make your very own embossed Pokémon badges. This easy to use pack comes with six different Pokémon to choose from, plus several pieces of card to make some very appealing badges. Also included are a set of paints, pens and pencils for colouring the badges that you have made.

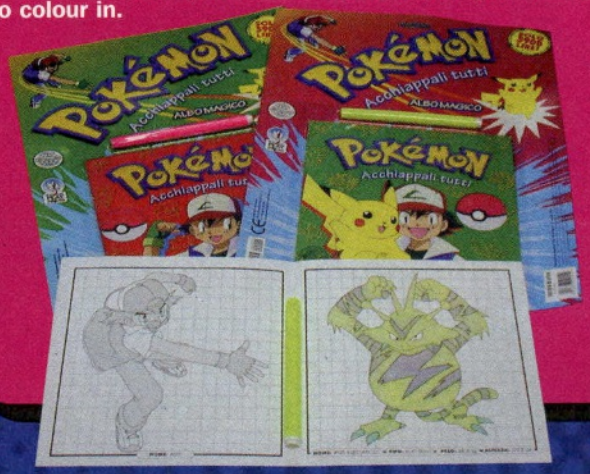




POKÉMON MAGIC PEN BOOKS

FROM .....PLAY PRESS

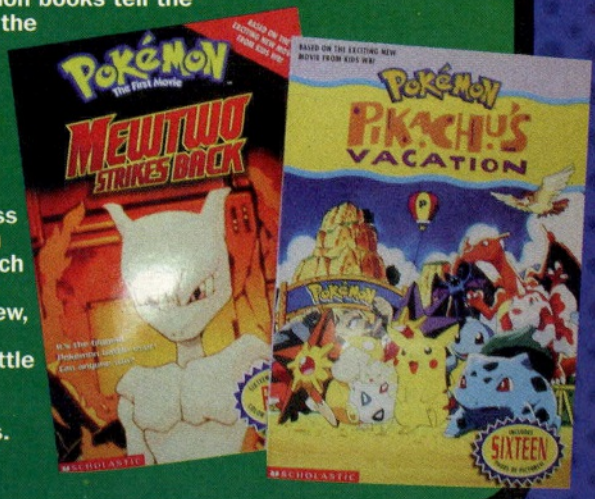
These magic pen books have come all the way from the land of pasta and pizza, Italy. The images inside the book appear to be black and white, but by rubbing the magic pen across the pages you can fill in the colour. There are two different books available with loads of great images to colour in.



POKÉMON MOVIE BOOKS

FROM .....SCHOLTASTIC

These Pokémon books tell the story behind the blockbusting Pokémon: The First Movie. Read about how Ash and friends journey across the Pokémon world in search of the 151st Pokémon, Mew, and find out about the battle between the two psychic super powers.



POKÉMON PIKACHU

FROM .....NINTENDO
PRICE £19.99

The Pokémon Pikachu is very much like the virtual pets which were extremely popular a couple of years ago. This version, however, is slightly different as you do not need to feed this monster and it will never die. The virtual pet reacts to your movement and gets stronger the more you exercise it. Keep this little Pokémon strapped to your waist and then watch him grow.

MUSIC FROM THE MOVIE AND CARTOON SERIES

FROM .....KOCH

These music CDs feature tracks from the hit cartoon series and the music from the Pokémon movie. Both CDs are enhanced for use on your PC and come with additional screensavers and even a music video of the Poké Rap. These discs are available in most high street music retailers.

POKÉMON ROOM GUARDS

FROM .....TOY OPTIONS

There's nothing worse than friends and relatives bursting into your room and disturbing your privacy. With these Pokémon room guards you'll always know when someone creeps into your room as a special sensor will detect anyone entering. There are several different characters available including Squirtle, Togepi and Jigglypuff.

POKÉMON SUPER FUN KIT

FROM .....ROSEART

The Super Fun Kit features lots of groovy Pokémon goodies including a pencil, notepad, colouring pens, sticker book, stickers, tattoos, posters and several Pokémon action shots to colour in. There is just so much fun to be had inside that you'd be mad to let this quality item slip through your fingers. A top choice for any wannabe Pokémon trainer.

POKÉMON BOOKS

FROM .....SCHOLTASTIC

A selection of written books from Scholtastic which take you on a journey, based on the cartoon series. There are also a number of puzzle and quiz books and a very handy album for keeping your stickers in perfect condition. Top stuff for reading before you go to bed.

GAME BOY CARRY CASE

FROM .....PLANET DISTRIBUTION
PRICE .....£4.99 - £12.99

These Game Boy carry cases are just perfect for transporting your Game Boy Color and all the accessories that go with it. There are several different sizes to choose from depending on how many accessories you need to carry with you. Of course, there's room for a few games and spare batteries, but the larger cases can also carry magnifiers, recharge packs and of course, flex lights for playing in the dark. Cool!

POKÉMON ELECTRIC PINBALL

FROM .....TIGER ELECTRONICS

Just add batteries for a full-on game of pinball fun with Ash and your favourite Pokémon characters. There are no balls needed for this game as a red light plots the location of the ball at all times. Use the flippers to keep the light on in the field of play and score as many points as you can.

POKÉMON CHOCOLATE WORKS

FROM .....SUPERCAST

Chocolate is very tasty and with this superb set, you can now make your very own chocolate Pokémon. Included are several packets of chocolate chips and a very special dish for melting it into the plastic moulds. There are two different types of chocolate to make, either full-standing characters or treat-sized mini chocs. Care must be taken when using the heating dish, so adult supervision is recommended.

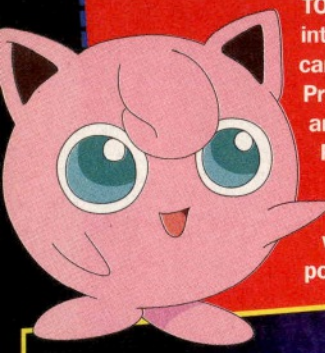
Pokémon

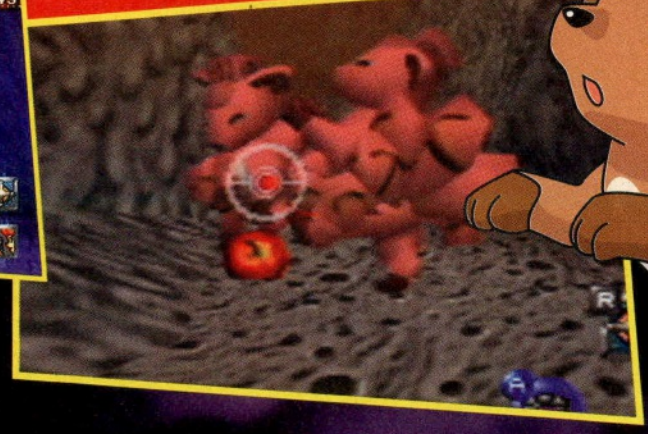
CONTROL - YOU MUST LEARN CONTROL

THE BEST THING ABOUT Pokémon Snap is how easy it is to just pick up and play. You don't need to wade for hours through an instruction manual or complicated training missions – instead, it's just a quick jump into the game. One of the reasons for this is the Zelda-style screen set-up, where every single button and its function is displayed on the screen. If you're unsure of something, all you need to do is look to the bottom corner of the screen!

LOCK AND LOAD

TO MAKE THE GAME a little more interesting you don't just have a camera at your disposal. Progress well through the game and you're awarded Apples, Pester Balls and a Pokéflute! You can, of course, just snap away at whatever you want but to get the most points per picture you will need to use these items to their full. The Apples are good for luring Pokémon to specific points, whilst the Pester Balls are perfect for scaring Pokémon from their hiding places or even knocking them out! The Flute is the last thing you receive – playing it often sets off specific Pokémon special abilities such as Pikachu's electric attack.

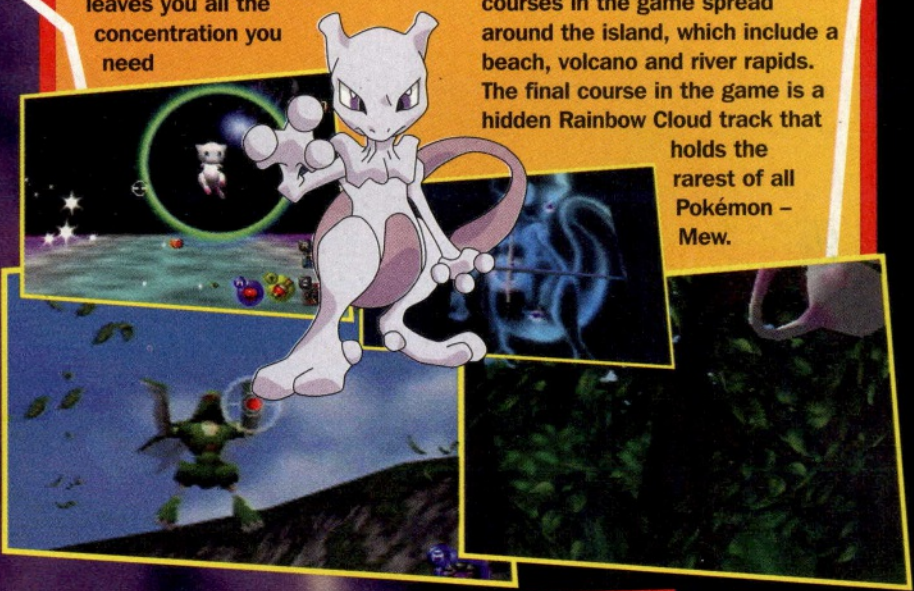




Snap

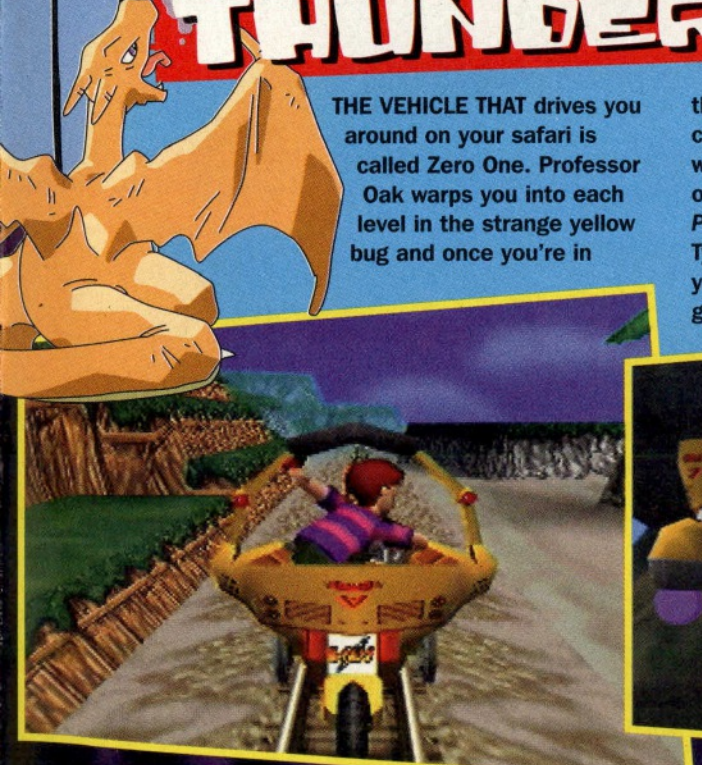
ON A RAIL

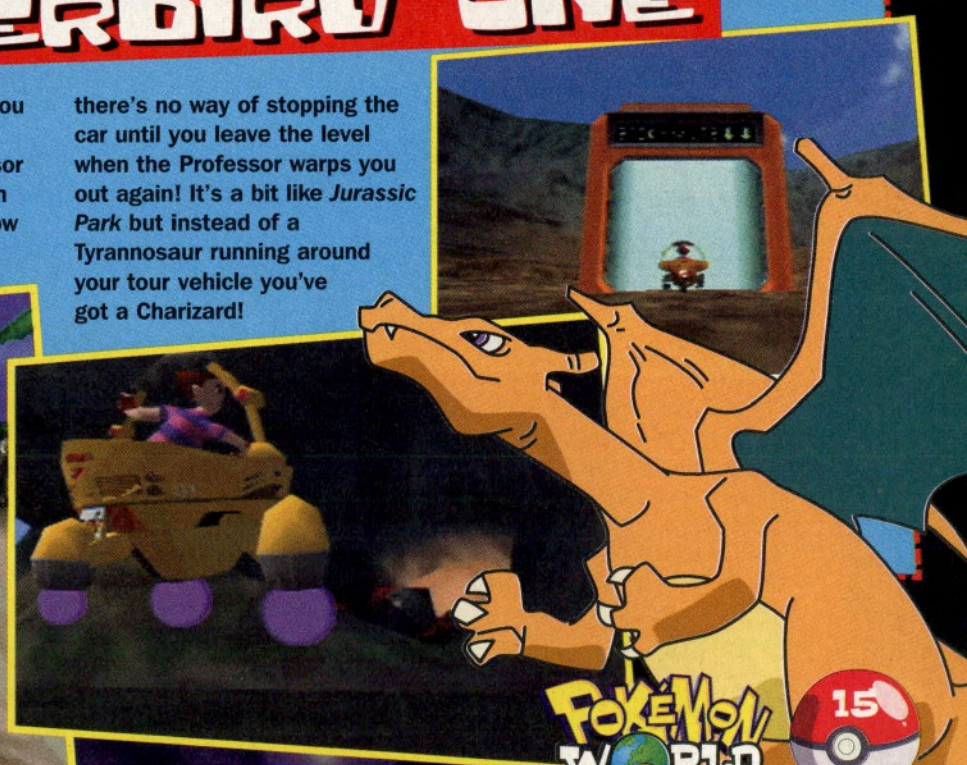
UNLIKE THE GAME BOY Pokémon games where you can wander freely around your world, in Pokémon Snap you're quite literally stuck on a rail! However, this is no bad thing because it leaves you all the concentration you need to keep an eye out for hidden Pokémon and perfect pictures. Pokémon can come from any angle around you and you really do need to be on the ball to spot them all! There are seven courses in the game spread around the island, which include a beach, volcano and river rapids. The final course in the game is a hidden Rainbow Cloud track that holds the rarest of all Pokémon – Mew.



THUNDERBIRD ONE

THE VEHICLE THAT drives you around on your safari is called Zero One. Professor Oak warps you into each level in the strange yellow bug and once you're in there's no way of stopping the car until you leave the level when the Professor warps you out again! It's a bit like Jurassic Park but instead of a Tyrannosaur running around your tour vehicle you've got a Charizard!





Pokémon Snap

SCORES ON THE BOARD

AT THE END OF each run you get to select one individual shot of each Pokémon you've snapped to show to Professor Oak so that he can add them to the report. Unfortunately, the Professor is quite strict and if you've taken a sub-standard shot then you're given a low score for the run! To make sure you take the 'perfect' picture you need to get the chosen Pokémon in the centre of the frame, quite close up and doing something interesting in a good pose. It also helps if you've got more of the same Pokémon in the background or some form of interaction going on. This is all easier said than done when you're trying to snap at the faster moving Pokémon, though!

SCRAMBLED EGGS

ONE OF THE MANY hidden Pokémon in the game is Zapdos. To snap this tricky flyer you need to make use of a handy Pikachu! Lead the loveable little Pokémon to an egg on the Cave level using Apples and then, when he gets close enough, play the Flute to have him perform his electric attack. The attack destroys the egg in a blinding flash of light and Zapdos flies out of the aftermath! Doing this also helps to generate electricity for the rest of the stage and should give you some slightly more interesting pictures.

HOT STUFF

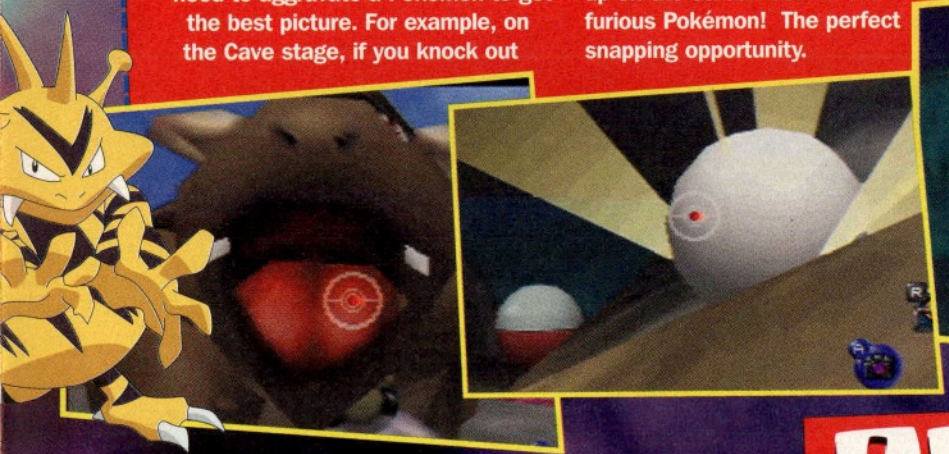
ON THE VOLCANO LEVEL there is a Charmeleon wandering around a small pool of lava. An attractive picture on its own, but those with an evil streak will soon realise that you can knock the poor unfortunate Pokémon into the lava pool with a well-aimed Apple! This may seem a little on the cruel side but do it and he automatically evolves into a huge Charizard! It's probably a good idea to get out of there quickly after you do this – an angry Charizard is never a good thing! This trick can also be done earlier on in the same level with Charmander.

LOG FLUME

TO PROGRESS THROUGH the game and open up new levels you need to look for opportunities and hidden routes. On the Tunnel level, for example, you have to blow a hole in the side of the tunnel with a Pokéball to access the Volcano. One of the more tricky level opening puzzles is to be found on the River stage. Towards the end of this Rapids stage you need to lure a Mankey near to a switch and then use a Pester Ball to knock him back. If you've timed it right and your aim is spot-on he lands on the switch and you get whisked away along a different route and over a waterfall.

OPEN FIRE

THIS MAY BE A non-violent game, where the idea is to 'shoot' snapshots of different Pokémon in weird poses and positions, but there's still loads of action in this game! Quite often you need to aggravate a Pokémon to get the best picture. For example, on the Cave stage, if you knock out Electrabuzz with a Pester Ball he will get back up and throw a lighting bolt in your general direction! Fortunately, the bolt doesn't hit you but a generator instead and puts a picture up on the screen behind the furious Pokémon! The perfect snapping opportunity.



SUMMARY

THIS IS A highly enjoyable and surprisingly addictive game, which is unfortunately finished a little too easily. On the plus side, you have every reason to keep coming back again and again to try and improve your Pokémon pictures!

SCORE 5/5

Pokémon Trading Card Game

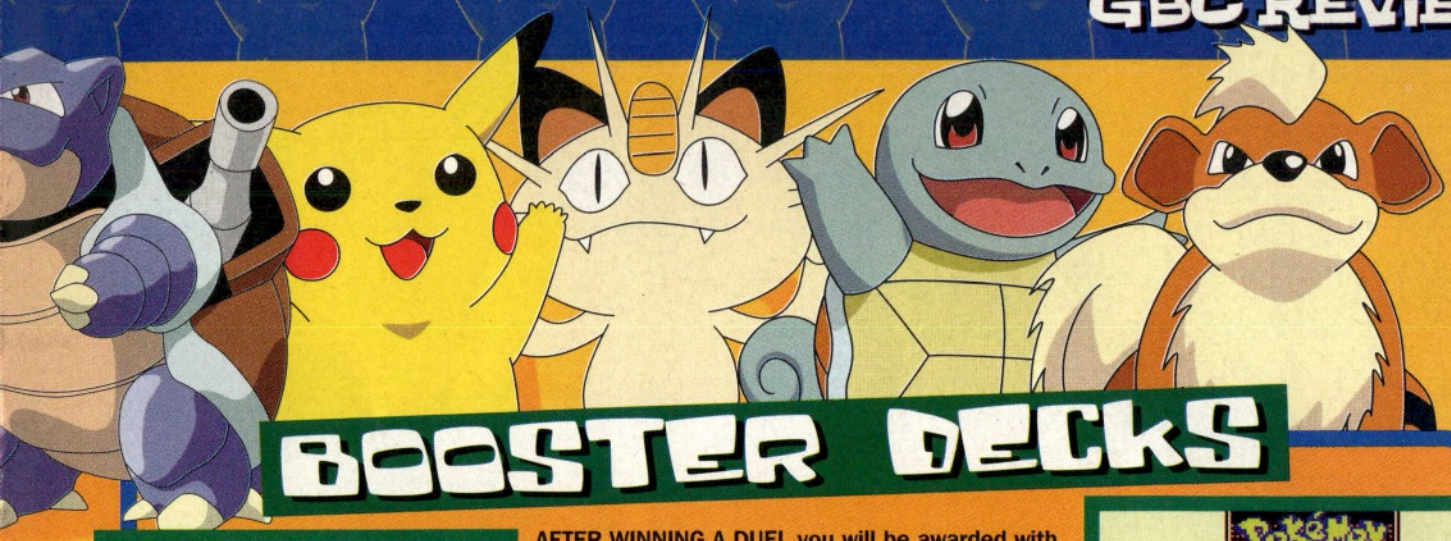
The Pokémon Trading Card Game made by Wizards of the Coast is extremely popular with thousands of children, who love collecting, trading and playing with the cards. Nintendo has now readied a new game for Game Boy Color which incorporates the fun of the Pokémon Trading Card Game, without the need to collect hundreds of swap cards.

PLAYING THE GAME

THE POKÉMON TRADING CARD GAME is simple to play. At the start of the game, you are introduced to Dr Mason, who is the local expert. He will teach you how to play the game by leading you through an entire duel step-by-step. Once you have mastered the basics, you can then challenge your opponent a few more times to get into the swing of it, before venturing out into the world and duelling the other card players.

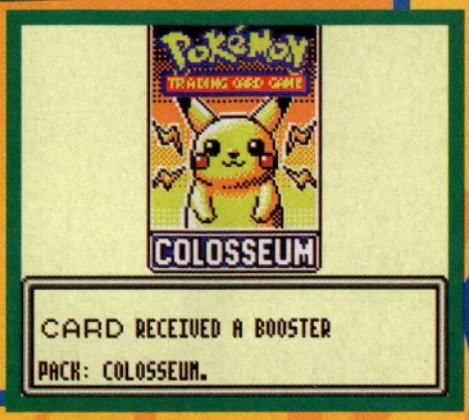
CLUBS

THERE ARE EIGHT different card playing clubs for you to visit, with players who love to use certain types of Pokémon. Each club has three pupils and only when you have defeated them will you get the chance to duel the Club Master for the Club Medal. Once you have won a medal you can then use it to activate the Deck Building Machines in Dr Mason's Laboratory, which will help you to build some of the more popular decks used by trainers.



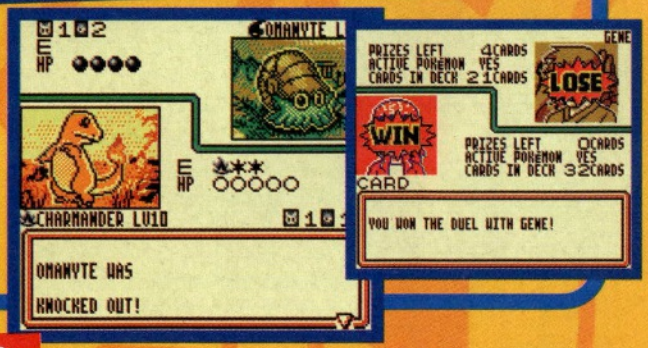
BOOSTER DECKS

AFTER WINNING A DUEL you will be awarded with two booster packs containing Pokémon Trading Cards. There are four types of booster packs available with different Pokémon and Trainer cards in each set. You can scan through the cards you have been awarded and then alter your playing deck to include a few more powerful Pokémon cards. Of course, the object of the game is to collect all of the cards and use them to build a deck which will obliterate your opponents.

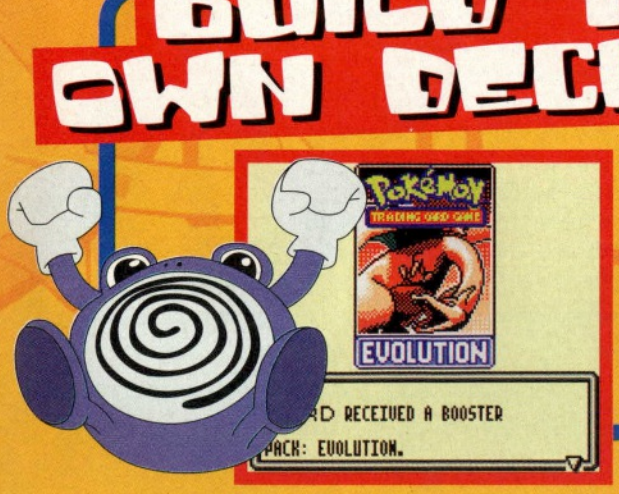


THE LEGENDARY POKÉMON CARDS

YOUR GOAL IN THE GAME is to take on the four Grand Masters to try to win the Legendary Pokémon Cards. Before you can enter the Pokémon Dome you must win the eight Club Medals and then you'll need to have built a deck of cards capable of taking on the Grand Masters. These Grand Masters are expert card players and have some very powerful cards, including the Legendary Cards you are trying to win.

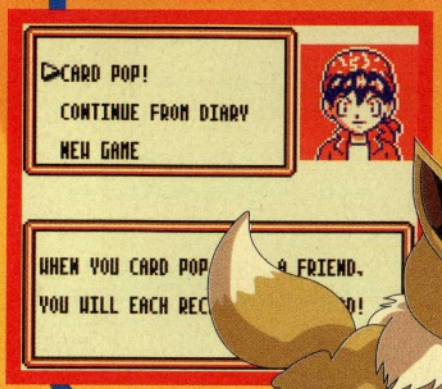


BUILD YOUR OWN DECK

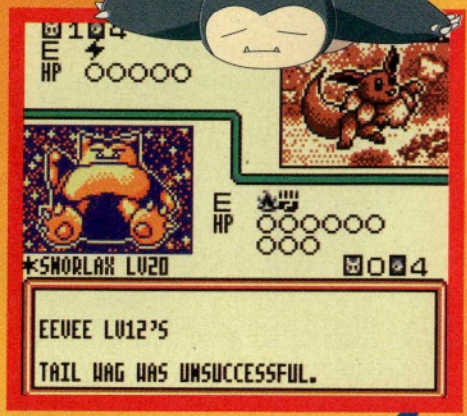


HAVING JUST ONE TYPE of Pokémon in your deck is extremely dangerous as every type has a weakness. If your Fire deck comes up against any Water Pokémon you could be in for a very quick exit so place several Pokémon types into your deck. Obviously you cannot include a Pokémon of every type as you will not have enough energy, so mix them up and come up with a few choice cards which suit your style of play.

ONCE YOU POP

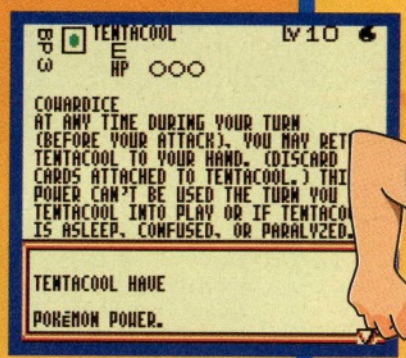


PLAYING THE TRADING CARD GAME with friends is fun and by using the infrared ports on your Game Boy Color, you can link with your mates and duel your decks. In every club there is a desk that you must use to enter the duelling arena, or send and receive cards and deck configurations. There is also a rather nifty feature that enables you to card pop with your friends so both players receive a brand new card. You can only pop once with each friend so by popping lots of friends, you can gain quite a few extra cards.



POKÉMON POWER

SOME POKÉMON HAVE special abilities called Pokémon Powers. These powers can effect the way the game is played, so pay careful attention to the cards being used. Each time you place a Power Pokémon into play you will be told the special ability that the monster has, and it's up to you to work out which way to play them to turn the game in your favour. A few of the better Pokémon, like Blastoise, have the ability to move Energy cards, whilst Snorlax is immune to any sort of Poison, Confusion or Paralysis.



PROMO CARDS

JUST LIKE THE WIZARDS Pokémon Trading Card Game, there are special promotional cards included in the game. These cards are a little different from the standard cards obtained from the boosters and can be used to help you win your duels. Speak to all the people inside the clubs and trade cards with them to gain promo cards, and also keep trying to enter the Challenge Cup held in the tournament hall.

ISHIHARA'S HOUSE

IN THE TOP LEFT-HAND corner of the map is a small house full of books. This house belongs to Tsunekazu Ishihara, who is the President of Creatures Inc. Mr Ishihara is the man who invented Pokémon and is the knowledge base where you can discover all sorts of helpful advise to help you through the game. Return to Ishihara's house often to trade cards and read the books.

CARD RECEIVED A BOOSTER PACK: LABORATORY.

SUMMARY

THE POKÉMON TRADING CARD GAME is very well put together and includes all the elements of the Wizards card game. Anyone who has played the Trading Card Game will love this Game Boy Version as it enables you to practice playing cards without damaging your precious cards. For other Pokémon fans, this could be a great way to learn how to play the Trading Card Game, but may not be of interest to all of you.

Whenz It Out?

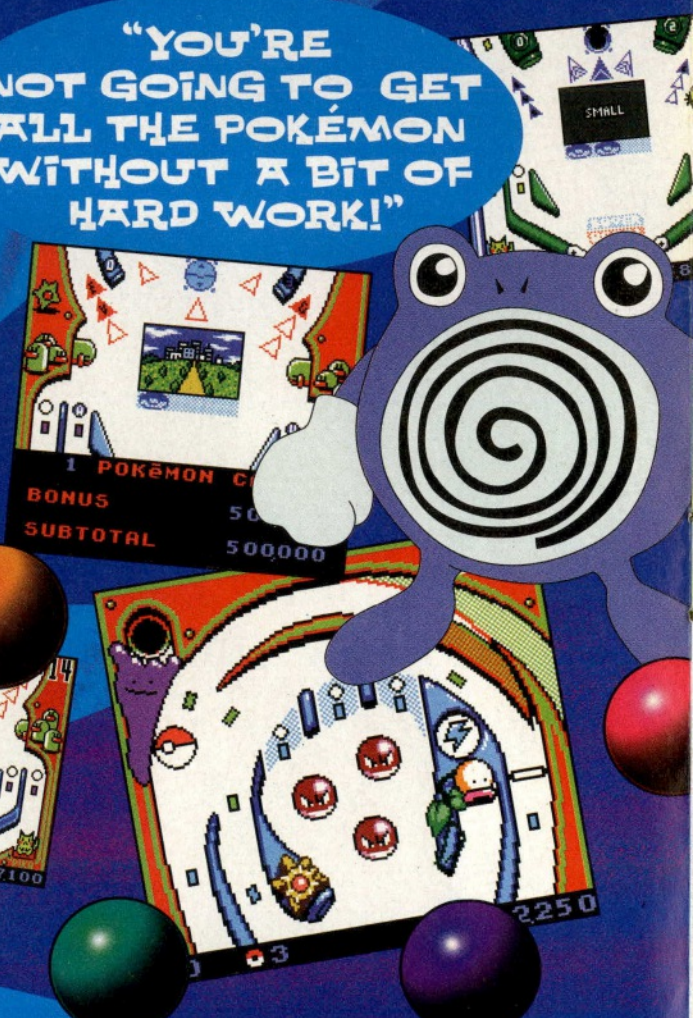
Oh Flip!

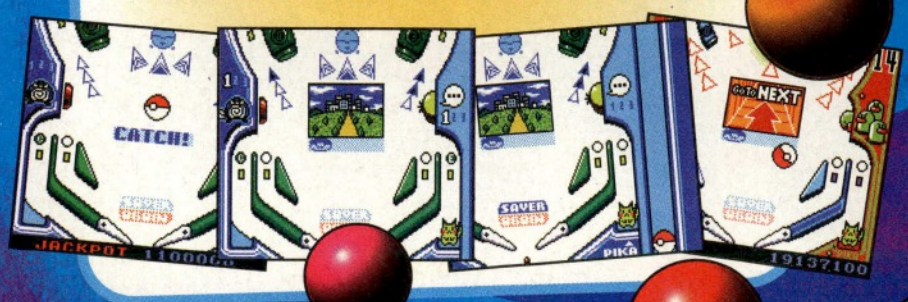
The game offers you a choice of two tables to play on, which are – surprise, surprise – red and blue. Each table is set up differently, with a different set of monsters lurking in its depths, just like in Red and Blue on the Game Boy. Once you've chosen your table, you're straight into the action – just fire out your ball and you're off, flipping your way around the table.

Release The Balls

Now, we probably don't need to explain to you what Pokémon Pinball is all about, do we? Unless your brain has fallen out of your ear, you can probably guess that what we have here is game of pinball... with Pokémon in it. What you might not know, though, is just how much fun can be had on this little pinball table – with objects and settings straight out of the Pokémon world, and 151 monsters waiting to be snapped up, this game is guaranteed to get your adrenaline pumping and your Pokéball jumping!

"YOU'RE NOT GOING TO GET ALL THE POKÉMON WITHOUT A BIT OF HARD WORK!"





PINBALL

"THERE'S MUCH MORE TO IT THAN JUST FLIPPING A BALL AROUND - THERE'S A WHOLE BUNCH OF POKÉMON HIDING IN THERE SOMEWHERE!"

IN TRAINING

THIS BEING A POKÉMON GAME, YOU'RE NOT GOING TO GET ALL THE CREATURES WITHOUT A BIT OF HARD WORK. IN ORDER TO DO WELL AND START TO REALLY FILL YOUR BUILT-IN POKÉDEX, YOU'LL HAVE TO BECOME A MASTER OF THE FLIPPERS SO THAT YOU CAN EVOLVE YOUR POKÉMON. TO EVOLVE YOUR BASIC CREATURE, YOU MUST SHOOT YOUR BALL THREE TIMES AROUND THE LEFT OUTSIDE LOOP, AND THEN ENTER THE EVOLUTION CAVE. ONCE YOU'RE IN THERE, CHOOSE THE POKÉMON YOU WANT TO EVOLVE, AND YOU'LL POP OUT ON THE MAIN TABLE AGAIN, AFTER WHICH YOU NEED TO COLLECT THREE ITEMS - WITHIN A TIME LIMIT, JUST TO MAKE THINGS EVEN HARDER! - AND SHOOT YOUR BALL INTO THE HOLE IN THE MIDDLE! PHEW!

RUMBLED!

What with all the Pokémon waiting to be caught, along with extra stages, points to build up and bonuses – like multipliers – to collect, there's no way you'll get through Pokémon Pinball in a hurry. You're guaranteed to have some serious fun along the way too! The only downside is that, rather than following the ball around the table, the on-screen view flips from the top to bottom, which can make you feel distinctly queasy when you're concentrating on your ball. However, we reckon this is made up for by the fact that the game comes with its own built-in Rumble Pak, meaning you'll feel every bump and jolt of the table – now that really is cool!

Pokémon Pinball is quite simply a great idea. The combination of monster-catching and addictive action is sure to be a winner – it certainly was with us! Now, if we could just evolve one more of those Pokémon...

Monster Monster

Of course, there's more to it than just flipping a ball around – there's a whole bunch of Pokémon hiding in there somewhere, remember! To catch them, you'll need to send your Pokéball to a particular spot on the table, where it will be swallowed up and spat out again by a hungry monster. After that, the shadowy image of a Pokémon will appear towards the bottom of the table. To light it up, you must send the ball over the image and up to the little creatures in the top half of the table, lighting up a piece of the Pokémon with each hit. Once your little monster is lit up, he'll come to life, at which point you have to get a bit cruel! Keep hitting the poor thing until the letters 'CATCH' light up beneath him, then get him one more time to snap him up in your ball – and he's yours!

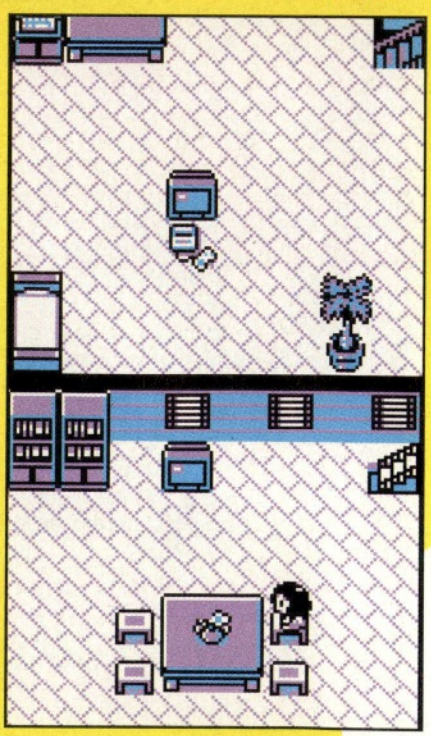
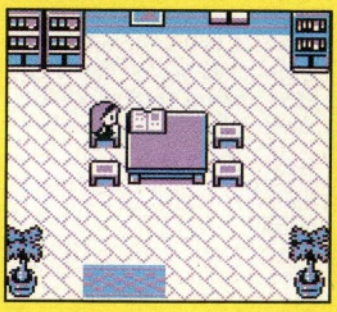
Pokémon Yellow Guide

HERE'S THE WHOLE STORY OF ASH'S JOURNEY FROM POKÉMON ROOKIE TO ULTIMATE TRAINER. YOU AIN'T GONNA GET ANYWHERE, THOUGH, WITHOUT A STRONG SET OF POKÉMON. HOLD ONTO YOUR POKÉBELTS!

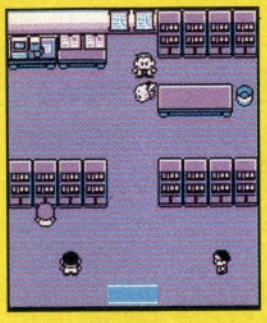
PALLET TOWN

Go and pick up the Potion from your room, speak to your mum and leg it out of the town. You'll be dragged to Prof Oak's Lab, where he'll give you a Pikachu and it's time to fight your rival. His Pokémon is hard, but you can still win. Either way, head for Route 1 and start building up your Pikachu against the Ratattas and Pidgeys out there.





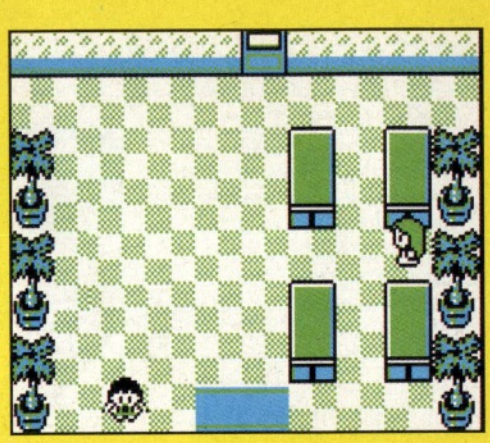
VIRIDIAN CITY



Revive here and then pick up Oak's parcel from the Mart. Time to head back! Use the cliffs short cut. Then return to Pallet Town.

Take the parcel to Prof Oak and he'll give you a Pokédex! Now head for the rival's house and his sister will let you have the town map. Back to Viridian!

Stock up on Pokéballs and start collecting! By now, you should be able to get past the old man and into Route 2. In Viridian Forest you'll be able to grab goodies and insect Pokémon. Keep on heading north until you reach Pewter City.

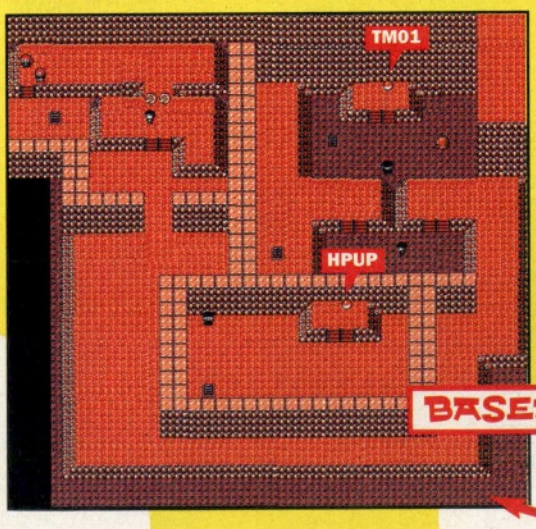


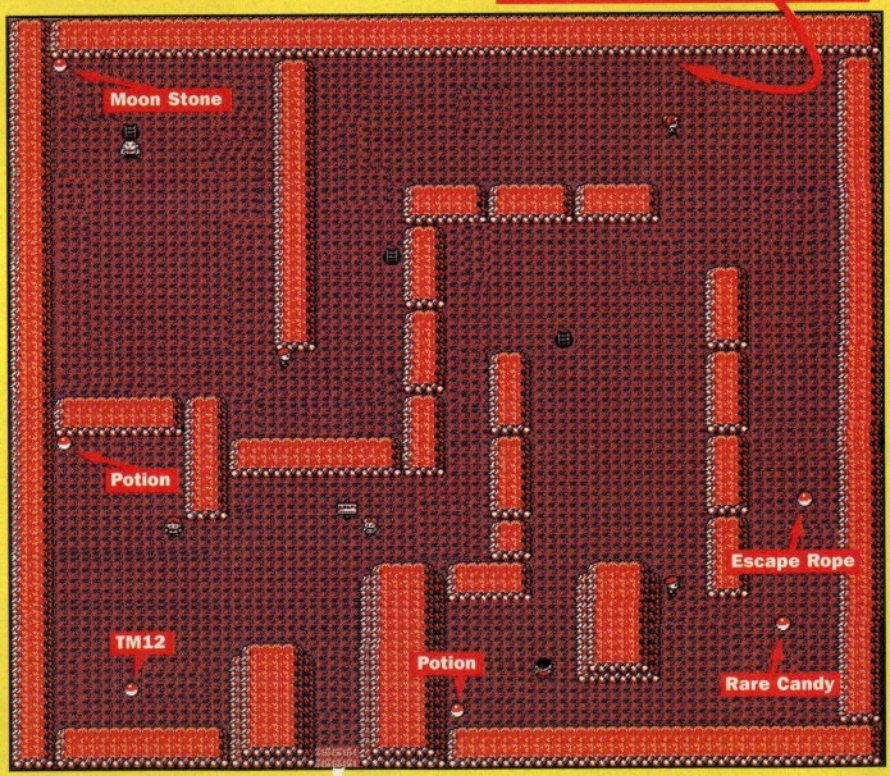
PEWTER CITY

You can check out the museum here, but it's not worth 50p. Sneak round the back later for the amber, which will turn into an Aerodactyl if you take it to a lab. Now try escaping the town and you'll be led back to Brock's gym. There's no escaping! As in all the gyms, you can fight the wimps first, but Brock's your first challenge. He has a level 10 Geodude and a level 14 Onix. If you've got a few well-trained Pokémon and some nifty power-ups, he's history, and you've picked up the Boulder Badge and TM34! Now move onto Route 3. Plenty of chances to build up levels here before you take on Mount Moon.

MOUNT MOON

You'd better have healthy Pokémon, because some nasty Zubats and Geodudes attack in here! There's even a Clefairy, and they're all worth capturing. Once you've found your way past all the preliminary trainers, picking up all the helpful goodies, you'll meet a Super Nerd guarding Pokémon fossils. Once you've beaten him, choose one of them – they'll be useful to you later on! Then Jesse and James stick their oar in. If you've got Geodude, their Ekans, Meowth and Koffing are no match, and you can mosey out into Route 4. Make sure you get the TM here, and move onto Cerulean City.





CERULEAN CITY

Once you're healed, you can fight Misty in the Cerulean Gym. Use Electric and Grass attacks on her Staryu and Starmie and you'll get a Bubblebeam TM and the Cascade badge! Back outside, you can get a Jynx or Bulbasaur next door to the Poké Centre before heading north, where five vicious trainers await. After making them cry, you'll receive a valuable nugget and you can fight your way around to Bill's Cottage.

Or at least you could if you didn't bump into your rival again! His Pokémon are quite difficult now, so you'll have to ensure that you're just as hard as he is. Once you send him off and reach the Cottage, you'll have to help poor Bill who's muddled his DNA with Pokémon DNA! Send him back through the machine and he'll reward you with a ticket for the S.S. Anne, and show you his PC capabilities! Thank him kindly and exit north, back into Cerulean City. You'll be able to get into the house that's been burgled and exit through the back door. Fight the thief and pick up the Dig TM. Once you've done that, it's best to head south along Route 5. Drop a Pokémon off at the Daycare Centre if you want, but it costs a bit! As you can't take the southern route, it's time to head underground, to Vermilion City.

VERMILION CITY

There's a lot going on in this town, but it's none of your business! Most importantly of all, get to the Pokémon fanclub situated on the west coast. Listen to the President's tummy-rubbish and he'll give you a Bike Voucher.

CERULEAN CITY

Run back to this fine blue city and enter the Bike Shop in the north. Once you've got the bike, you can ride it back top speed to Vermilion!

VERMILION CITY

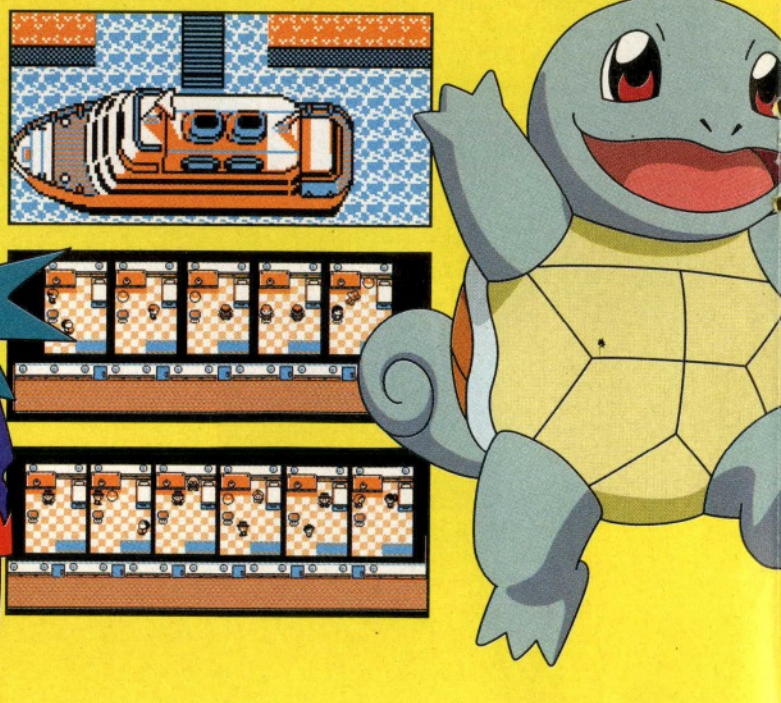
Next door to the Poké Centre a nice chap will give you a fishing rod – more chances to catch Pokémon! Now if you're ready it's time to board the S.S. Anne. Have you got those Pokémon well trained?

S.S. ANNE

Walk the gangplank to the south and give the nice man your ticket. Once on-board the ship, there are lots of cabins to explore, full of vicious trainers and great items. After you've roamed each deck and got every TM you can get your hands on (don't forget to check the bins!) head to the far end of Deck Two, where a flight of stairs will take you to the captain's room. First you've got to fight your rival, though. Prime those Pokémon! Once in the captain's cabin, cure his mal-de-mer and he'll give you the Cut HM!

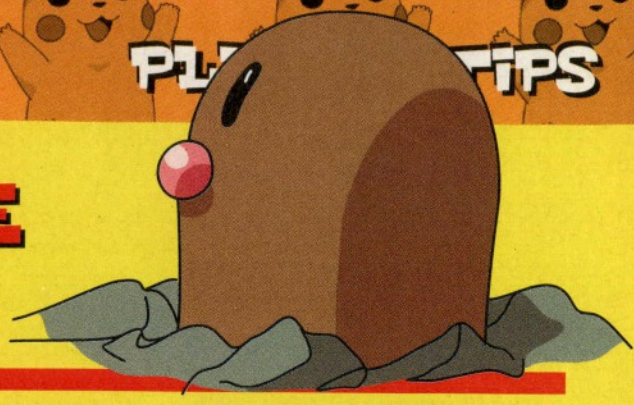
VERMILION CITY

Now you've got the ability to cut, head for the gym and remove that tree – it's time to face Lt Surge! He just loves his Electric Pokémon, so it's best to hurt them a lot with a Rock type monster like Geodude. When you've beaten all his pals, he'll let you have the Thunder Badge and the Thunderbolt TM. Now you can exit and chat to Officer Jenny in the square, who'll let you have her Level 10 Squirtle. Then you can move on eastwards and enter Diglett's cave.



DIGLETT'S CAVE

The journey through here to Route 2 isn't difficult, but it's a great chance to grab some mighty fighters. Diglett and Dugtrio can be caught with flying Pokémon and are great assets to your Pokédex!



VIRIDIAN FOREST

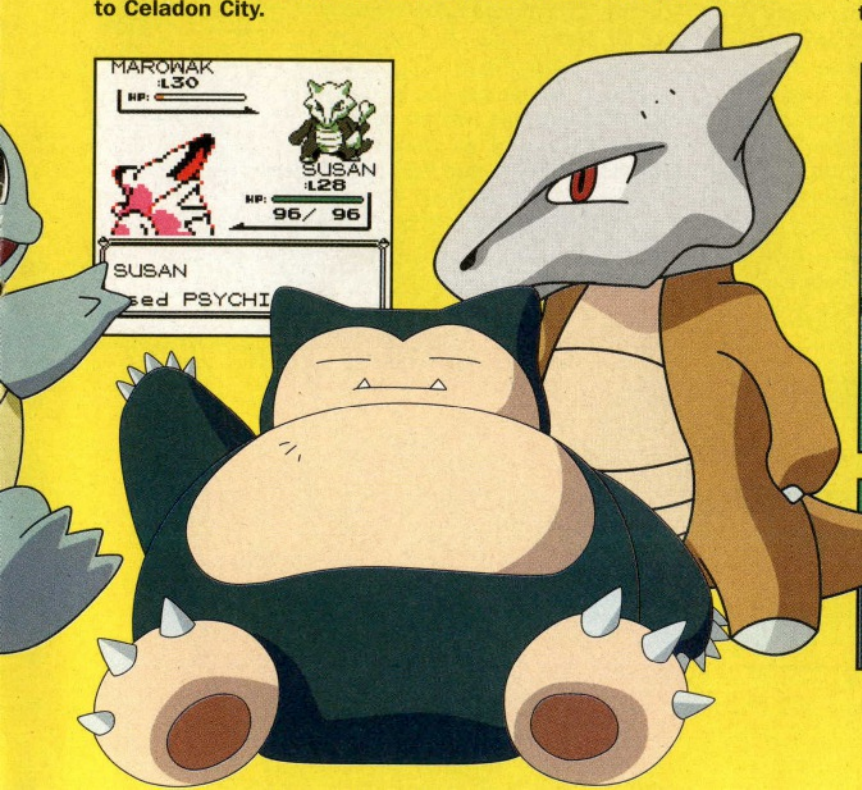
You'll appear near Viridian Forest, where your Cut capabilities will allow you to reach a house where one of Prof Oak's aides awaits you. If you've collected ten or more Pokémon, the HM Flash is yours! Now it's back to Vermilion City, and from there, north to Cerulean City and east onto Route 9. After a little battling, you can use the Flash to see inside the Rock Tunnel.

LAVENDER TOWN

It's all very nice and purple, but there's little you can do here. Pokémon Tower is impossible to beat without the Silph Scope. If you don't fancy having some bloke criticise your Pokémon's names, head west onto Route 8. If you've fought all these trainers, head for the small house, which leads to Route 7, and then westwards to Celadon City.

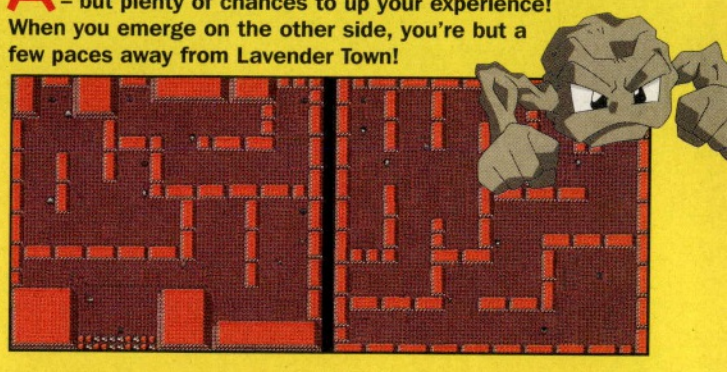
LAVENDER TOWN

Armed with the Silph Scope, enter Pokémon Tower where a ghostly experience awaits you. You have to duel your rival on the second floor, so keep those Pokémon fit. Luckily, just after this, the spirits allow you to heal your Pokémon on Level 5. Two more floors and you'll meet the spirit of Marowak. Beat her if you must, but she'd be amazing if you have her in your collection! Once she's laid to rest, move to the top floor and Mr Fuji is there. Beat the Rocket trainers and save him. Not that he wants saving, but at least he has the courtesy to reward you with the Pokéflute. No more sleeping Snorlaxes for you! Retreat to Celadon City.



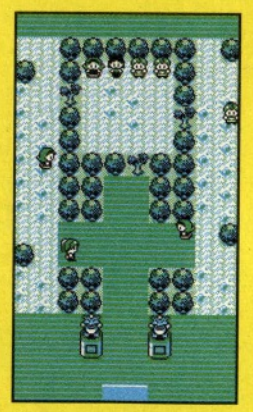
ROCK TUNNEL

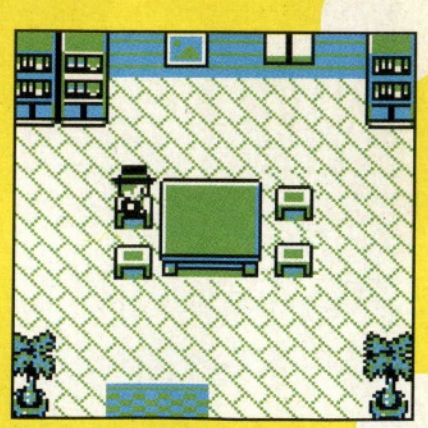
Another dank cave bursting with nasty attackers – but plenty of chances to up your experience! When you emerge on the other side, you're but a few paces away from Lavender Town!



CELADON CITY

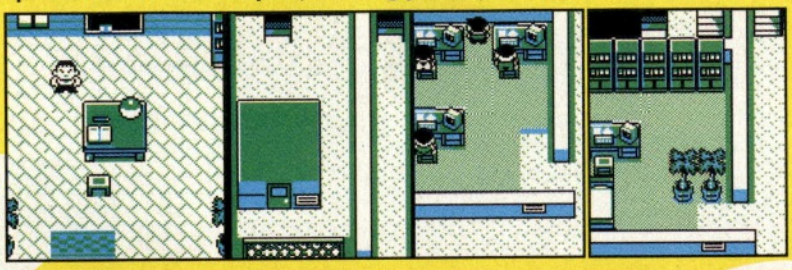
Heal yourself and stock up on items before heading for the game corner. You can play the slots to get rare Pokémon much later – there's too much to do, man! Flick the switch under the poster in the back wall of the Gaming Room, and advance into the Team Rocket hideout. Explore all you want for goodies before getting the lift key and moving down to the basement. Fight the Team Rocket members then head through into the next room to face the nasty Giovanni. Use Water Pokémon to beat him quickly and painlessly, and the defeated gangster lets you have the Silph Scope. You're not done yet, though – there's still Erika in Celadon Gym to beat! Fire Pokémon are best to beat Grass, so concentrate and she's through! Then she'll give you the Rainbow Badge and Mega Drain. Retrace your steps to Lavender Town.





CELADON CITY

By now you should have enough cash to buy loads at the Poké Supermart, but make sure you visit the top floor and buy some drink. Head east until you reach the thirsty guard. He'll drink your pop, and spread it around all his pals, allowing you to proceed to...



LAVENDER TOWN

From here you can head south, along the boardwalk until you see the snoozing Snorlax. Wake him up a toot on your flute and you can reach another of Oak's aides. 30 Pokémon or more will get you an item finder, otherwise stay on Route 12, doing a bit of fishing if you must, until you turn into Route 13 at the bottom. This maze gets a little annoying, but you can earn a fortune with a few scraps here! The opportunity for a good scrap continues through route 14 and 15 until you get to Fuchsia City.

FUCHSIA CITY

There's another opportunity to grab a rod here, but the best Pokémon catches are at the Safari Zone. First, though, go fight Koga at Fuchsia Gym. The 'secret' walls here shouldn't bother you, but beware of exhausting your Pokémon on the trainers. Fire Pokémon beat his insects easily, and now you have the Soul Badge! Getting back to the Safari Zone, the battles can be dull, but it's an amazing chance to brighten up your Pokédex. Otherwise, it's crucial that you reach the Secret House and Gold Teeth in Area 3 above all else. The chap in the secret house lets you have HM Surf! Once you're happy with what you've got, zoom to the Warden's pad towards the south of Fuchsia City and give the poor fool his teeth back. HM Strength will be your reward! Now you can exit westwards and get on your bike for a nice run up the cycle path. There are plenty of energetic battles to be had here, but it's best to go south for a paddle. Ignore the hut here, unless you've got Stadium – it gives you a sub-game! The thing to do is leap into the water and surf with all your might round to Seafoam Island. This is another murky cave, where you have to use Strength to roll two boulders down to the last level. They will slow the tide of the water, allowing you to pass through. Concentrate on one at a time, and beware of getting them stuck by a wall (exit if this happens). Once the tide's gone, you can exit. Or, you could summon up all your energy and capture the Articuno. He's brilliant! On the other side, it's time to swim west to Cinnebar Island.

SAFFRON CITY

If you want to fill your Pokédex, beat the Karate Master at the small gym, but it's the battle with Sabrina next door that really matters! First, though, you have to topple Silph Co. This is a massive establishment with loads on offer, but it's on the fifth floor that you have to get the card key from Team Rocket. Once you've got this, finding your way round is easy. Using the teleporter on Level 3 sees you scrapping with the rival again. Beat him good, and then move on until you find the teleporter that takes you to the top floor. You have to take on Jesse and James again, but the can't cope with a good electric attack! Make your way to where the Silph Co. president is being held hostage by Giovanni. It's a tough battle, but smashing the villain will free the staff and the city, and you'll get the Master Ball. Don't use it yet! Make your way back into the fresh air and prepare to face Sabrina. Her Psychic Pokémon are tough, and you'll need to use every trick in the book to beat her and get the Marsh Badge and Psywave. If you fancy a change of air, leg it back to Lavender Town.

CINNEBAR ISLAND

This island gives you the chance to turn your fossil into a rare prehistoric Pokémon in the lab. It takes time, but it's worth it! While you're waiting, brave the dangers of Pokémon Mansion! There are loads of great items here, but it's tricky to get around. The secret is to flick the switches to explore the whole area, but the combination can be tricky. Eventually you'll reach an area on Level 3 with two places to jump down to the basement. Take the left one and you'll end up on Level 1, where the stairs will take you to the basement. Get the key to the north west. You can now find any other secret items, or just escape quickly. Enter the gym. If you're full of Poké knowledge, you won't even have to fight the trainers to reach Blaine! Once you do reach him, he attacks you with Fire Pokémon. Unless you've got some wicked Water monsters, you're not going to get that Volcano Badge! After your victory, it's time to go home. Head north, through route 21, back to Pallet Town.

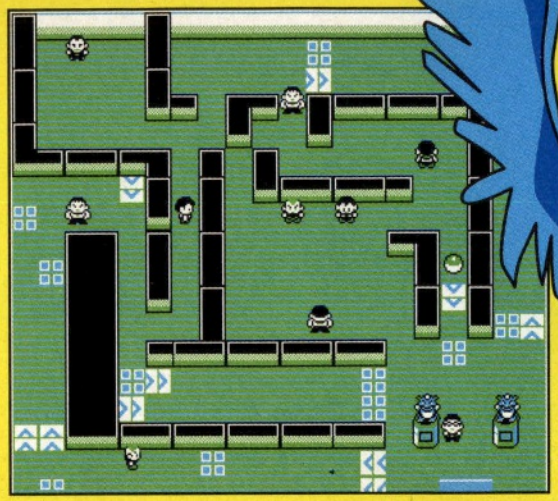
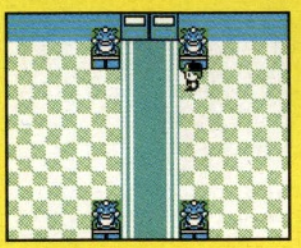
SEAFOAM CAVES

You could at least go and have a word with your mum at this point, after all that travelling, but the important thing is to reach Viridian City, just to the north. The gym here is now accessible, and it seems Giovanni never learns from his mistakes. He's even tougher now, though, and beating his Pokémon may take a while. Your team have got to be unbeatable! Once he's been proved a loser, the Earth Badge is finally yours, and it's back to Pallet Town! Head west, towards the Pokémon League HQ. First, you've got to beat your rival's team and he's done a good job training them up! Once you can get past, enter the building and proceed up Route 23. With all the badges, you can hold your head up high and march past all the guards, onto Victory Road.





VICTORY ROAD

It's more of a cave than a road, but it's another tricky boulder puzzle anyway. Push them onto the switches to make your way around, not forgetting to pick up all the crucial items, and possible catching a mythical Moltres on Level 2 if you're able. Save the Master Ball though! Then you're out in the fresh air, in Indigo Plateau.

INDIGO PLATEAU

Your destiny lies just ahead. The most important thing here is to have loads of money to stock up on revives, potions and the like for the Elite Four battles. Heal those Pokémon, and take a deep breath....

LORELEI

Lv54 Dewgong (Ice), Lv53 Cloyster (Ice), Lv54 Slowbro (Water), Lv56 Jynx (Ice), Lv56 Lapras (Water)

Lorelei is arguably the hardest to fight of the four. But Water and Ice have their weaknesses. Try using your Electric and Fire Pokémon against them respectively and this match could be something of a walkover. Make good use of Ghost and Psychic moves too, especially against that horrid Cloyster! Eat its dreams and move on.

BRUNO

Lv53 Onix (Rock), Lv55 Hitmonchan (Fighting), Lv55 Hitmonlee (Fighting), Lv56 Onix (Rock), Lv58 Machamp (Fighting)

Almost disappointingly, this battle's a breeze if you've got a good Psychic on your side. A master of the awesome Fighting and Rock Pokémon, these monsters have got brawn, but no brains.

AGATHA

Lv56 Gengar (Ghost), Lv56 Golbat (Poison), Lv55 Haunter (Ghost), Lv58 Arbok (Poison), Lv60 Gengar (Ghost)

This mad old bat surrounds herself with ghosts that are tricky to get rid of. Most attacks are going to pass straight through them! The sneaky beggars are best dispensed with with Sleep moves and Fire and Water. Need a revive yet?

LANCE

Lv58 Gyrados (Water), Lv56 Dragonair (Dragon), Lv56 Dragonair (Dragon), Lv60 Aerodactyl (Rock), Lv62 Dragonite (Dragon)

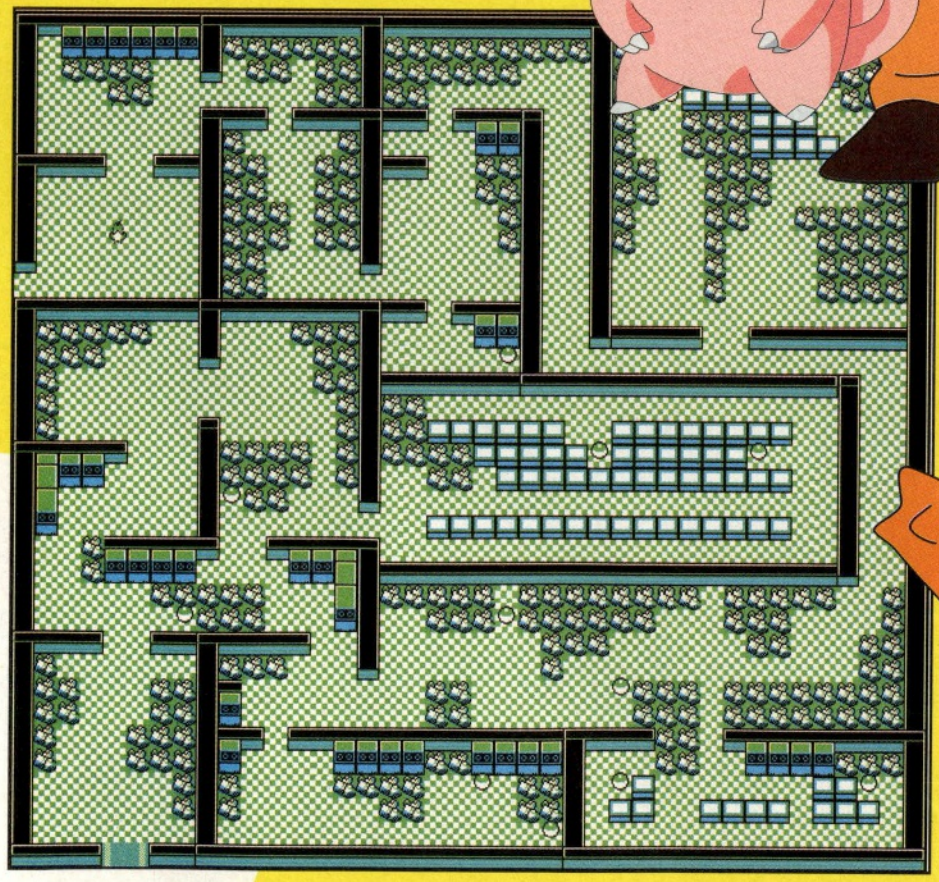
This clown in fancy dress doesn't scare you much, and the Dragon Pokémon he's so proud of wilt before a really highly experienced Psychic or Ice Pokémon. You've faced far worse battles, but the trick is to keep all your Pokémon healthy with items throughout. Think you're done? You've defeated the last of the four! But no! You're not the ultimate Pokémon Trainer; your rival's beaten you to it! Let's go and teach him a thing or two!

THE FINAL BATTLE

Your rival could really have any of a number of Pokémon combos by now, but he'll definitely have Sandslash, Alakazam and Exeggutor, all at 60 EXP or above. The rest depends on how his Eevee evolved. If you're all healthy, you just have to take each creature as it comes, and try and stun them into submission with the best you have. Ninetails is a tricky customer, but Ice Blast him when he's asleep and you'll finally see all your rival's sick and twisted dreams smashed to pieces. Hahaha! You are the Pokémon League Champion! Woohoo! Prof Oak chastises him and congratulates you, but there's still more to do.

POWER PLANT

If you missed this area, you can complete it now. Head back to Cerulean City and follow Route 9 until you reach a stretch of water. Surfing round here will take you to this item-laden plant, and there's a great Zapdos waiting to be captured. Getting this earlier will make the final battles easier.



UNKNOWN DUNGEON

But what really matters is... where's Mewtwo? Remember that guarded cave in Cerulean City? Surf back over there and you can now get in. This Unknown Dungeon is another tricky ladder puzzle, but it won't take long to reach the ultimate Pokémon in the basement (especially if you've used Repel). Put Mewtwo to sleep and hit him until he's got a tiny bit of energy left, before finally using your Masterball. Now he's all yours! You've got the best, now get the rest. Via your friends, the internet or just loads of hard slog, you gotta catch 'em all! Even the rubbish ones.

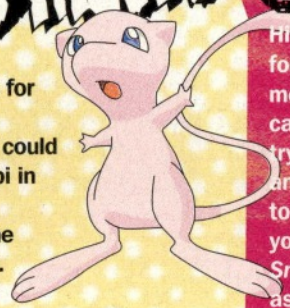
HELLO EVERYBODY! WANNA WRITE TO US? WELL GET SCRIBBLING AND SEND ALL YOUR STUFF TO: POKÉMAIL! POKÉMON WORLD, PARAGON HOUSE, ST PETERS ROAD, BOURNEMOUTH, BH1 2JS!

WHERE'S MEW?



We have a few questions for you as follows:

1. We heard that you could get Mew and Togepi in the Red and Blue versions without the Action Replay card. Is this true and if so, how?
2. How good is Pokémon Stadium and does it come with the Transfer Pak? If not, how much extra would it be?
3. Would it be worth it to trade Pokémon Red for Gold or Silver?
4. Is Pokémon Gold any different to Pokémon Silver?

JULIAN AND DAVID SCOTT

Thanks for writing guys, we hope we can satisfy your curiosity. You can get Mew without the Action Replaycard, but you'll need to visit the UK Pokémon Championships to download the little critter from a special machine. This machine is only in the UK for a short while so make sure you don't miss it!

Pokémon Stadium is a very good game with all your favourite Pokémon characters brought to life in glorious 3D. The game does come with the Transfer Pak, but it is also available on its own for £19.99.

Pokémon Gold and Silver are completely new games with new characters for you to catch. At this moment in time, Gold and Silver are only available in Japanese and this makes them almost impossible to play and understand.

Like Pokémon Red and Blue, Gold and Silver will have a few unique Pokémon making it impossible to catch 'em all without trading with a friend who owns the other cartridge. Other than this, the games will be identical.

SIMPLY THE BEST!

Hi there – I've got a question for you guys. Can you tell me what the best Pokémon cards are in each type? I'm trying to build a master deck and hope you might be able to help me out! Also, can you tell me when Pokémon Snap will be out for the N64, as I'm dying to get my hands on it! Thanks,

CATHERINE MARSHALL

Cheers for the letter Catherine – we would be delighted to help. Pokémon Snap on the N64 is scheduled for release in September. We are sure that the game will be available at this time along with the new Pikachu N64. With regards to your Pokémon Card question, the best in each type are as follows:

Fire:	Charizard	Grass:	Venusaur
Water:	Blastoise	Electric:	Electrabuzz
Fighting:	Hitmonchan	Psychic:	Alakazam

MOVIE MANIA

I would just like to say that I went to see the Pokémon movie and it was great – I thought the new Pokémon were cool and can't wait for Gold and Silver to come out! Can you tell me if there is going to be another Pokémon film – I can't wait if there is!

My favourite Pokémon is Jigglypuff because he looks cute and cuddly. Which one is your favourite and why?

LOUISE JACOBS

Thanks for the letter Louise, and we have some good news for you. There are another two Pokémon movies in production, and the second film should be on the big screen later this year. We will bring you more info as it gets closer to the time. Our favourite Pokémon is probably Gengar as he's got a wicked sens

MAKING HAY!

I have been collecting Pokémon Trading Cards for ages now and reckon I'm getting quite a collection going. I have heard about the Haymaker Deck, which my mate Colin says is the best deck. Is this true? If it is the best one, can you also tell me how I beat it so that I can show off to all my mates!

IAN WOODALL

Ian, thanks for your letter and we hope we can help. The Haymaker Deck is one of the best in the game and works extremely well as it is designed to cause a lot of damage as quickly as possible. All of the Pokémon included have low energy requirements leaving more room for Trainer Cards. The best way to beat this Deck is to use it for a short while and learn its weaknesses. Scyther is very effective for beating Hitmonchan and the movie promo Mewtwo card can also finish Hitmonchan in a single attack.

HAYMAKER DECK

2 Ditto
3 Electrabuzz
3 Hitmonchan
3 Jigglypuff
2 Wigglytuff
3 Scyther
3 Bill
3 Energy Removal
2 Energy Retrieval
2 Gust of Wind
3 Item Finder
3 Plus Power
2 Professor Oak
2 Scoop Up
3 Super Energy Removal
4 Double Colourless Energy
9 Fighting Energy
8 Electric Energy

CHEATS!

I know as well as you do that you can get new Pokémon for Red and Blue off an Action Replay card eg Mew, Snubble, Upaa, Marril and Togepi. I've been trying to get these cheats for three weeks but I just can't find them. I've rung up all the cheat lines and I still can't get them, so if you have any cheats for new Pokémon, please can you print them in your next magazine.

DARREN LEE

Thanks for writing Darren, you have a serious need to cheat don't you? We unfortunately have no idea how to use these cheat cartridges as we feel they ruin the gameplay. Mew is available in Pokémon Red and Blue, but all the others are unique to Pokémon Gold and Silver. Check the news to find out where you can download Mew into your Game Boy without the need to use

MUNTERSAUR

Pokémon Name: Muntersaur
Pokémon Type: Psychic

Special Attacks:
1. Psychic Blow
2. Sonic Scream
3. Glare Stare
4. Marriage Attack

Evolution: Final

Brief Description:
Beauty is not this Pokémon's strong point, and there is very little cuteness about this slightly balding, hideously fat, stripy blob. Can be found hanging around outside shady bars.

BABASAUR

Pokémon Name: Babasaur
Pokémon Type: Ground

Special Attacks:
1. Cry of Death
2. Hyper Nappy
3. Gum Chew Attack
4. Raspberry Blow

Evolution: Final

Brief Description:
This cute Pokémon looks so adorable you want to cuddle it, but it is then that it is at its most dangerous. When in your arms, the stench from the Hyper-Nappy can be dangerous. Try to put it down, though, and the Mega-Cry will damage your eardrums.

TRAMPHANT

Pokémon Name: Traviphant
Pokémon Type: Psychic and Normal

Special Attacks:
1. Feeding Time
2. Eyeball Kiss
3. Paprika Excuse Me
4. Great Big Slap

Evolution: Big Traviphant

Brief Description:
This big leathery fool may seem quite sweet, but in battle the devious little creature will feed the other Pokémon until their stomach explodes all over the place. Often to be found in Hu

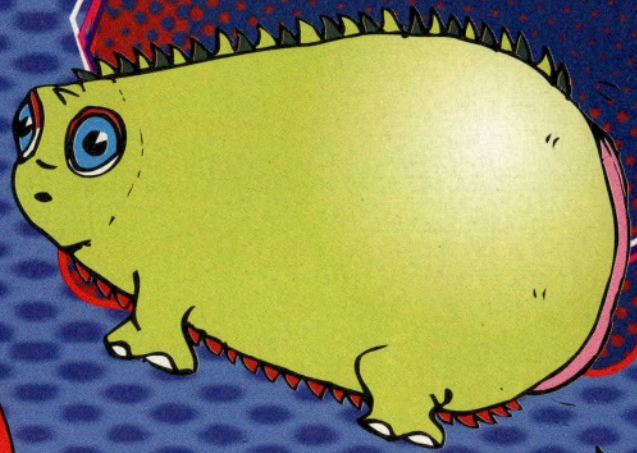
GUFFAMON

Pokémon Name: Guffamon
Pokémon Type: Good

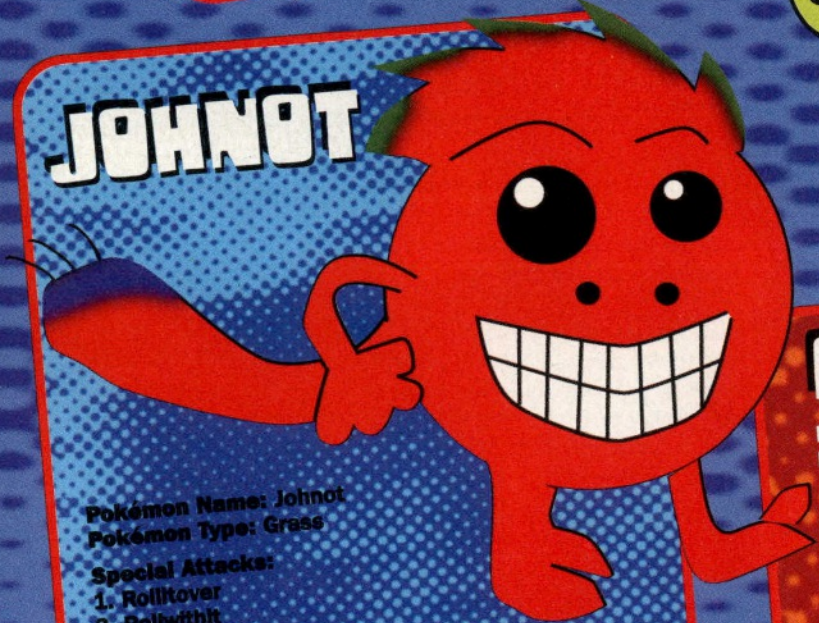
Special Attacks:
1. Super Blow-off
2. Rancid Fart Storm
3. Spinning Spike Attack
4. Reversal Belch Burst

Evolution: Final

Brief Description:
This spikey little green rascal can be found hanging around toilets to find out ways of increasing his smelly attacks. He is quite a dangerous beast but will only attack when he feels threatened.



JOHNOT



Pokémon Name: Johnot
Pokémon Type: Grass

Special Attacks:
1. Rollitover
2. Rollwithit
3. Wonderwall
4. Holiday jump

Evolution: Susan

Evolution 2: Susan Hargreaves

Brief Description:
This sparky Pokémon rolls over the grass, bashing his enemies in the nose. In fact, he bashes anyone in the nose, whether he's in a battle or not, which makes him very unpopular at parties. But then, no one invites him to their parties anyway because all he can say is 'Johnot'. When weak in battle, he can also recharge at will by going on an impromptu holiday for two weeks to Benidorm.

ROYCHU

Pokémon Name: Roychu
Pokémon Type: Evil

Special Attacks:
1. Chunder Wave
2. Toxic Barf
3. Lunch Attack
4. Disco Fever

Evolution: Teenroychu

Brief Description:
This strange loud-mouthed monster can often be found staggering around nasty discos. After a few bevvies this Pokémon becomes very aggressive – particularly dangerous when dancing to Kung Fu Fighting. To catch a Roychu wait outside the disco, where you'll find him face down in a small carrot coloured puddle. He evolves into a Teenroychu, at which point he will stop listening to Steps and cultivate a few gigantic spots!

TONY HAWK'S PRO SKATER 2

DEVELOPER.....ACTIVISION
PRICE £39.99

Tony Hawk's Pro Skater was a surprise hit last year and many gamers loved the smooth control and awesome style of the extreme skateboarding game. Fans can now rejoice, as the sequel is about to hit the stores and brings with it plenty of new courses, riders and dare devil stunts.

BIG AIR

The control system is extremely friendly and easy to control, and there are just so many new tricks for you to pull off. There are new parks from different locations around the world, but if you fancy, you can even design your own skatepark. Add to this mix some awesome tunes and gorgeous graphics and you've got another hit skateboarding game on your hands. Fans of the original will just love this game and everyone else simply has to give this great game a go!

BALLISTIC

DEVELOPER .....THQ
PRICE £39.99

Puzzle games never spark too much interest, but among the many out there are some of the world's favourite games. Ballistic is a new kind of puzzle game where you must halt the advancing spheres by shooting coloured balls at similar coloured spheres. Each time three balls of the same colour are together, they will explode and halt the sphere's movement for a few short seconds.

As the game progresses, the spheres become faster and faster, until a few more colours are added to really turn up the heat. Ballistic is a stunning puzzle game that is every bit as addictive as Tetris, and just as frustrating at times. If you fancy something different then Ballistic is well worth a try!

NINTENDO 64

THE NINTENDO 64 HAS HAD A GOOD YEAR SO FAR. WITH POKÉMON STADIUM DRIVING CONSOLE SALES TO ANOTHER LEVEL. THE MACHINE KEEPS SURPRISING US WITH QUALITY GAMES AND THERE'S STILL PLENTY MORE TO COME.

NEWS

Nintendo has lifted the lid on its new console and has announced that the Nintendo Gamecube will be on sale next year. The new machine boasts a 400 MHz processor and will link with the new Game Boy Advance.

TUROK 3

DEVELOPER ..... ACCLAIM
PRICE £39.99

The Turok series of games on the N64 has proved to be a big seller from Acclaim and now the final N64 version is about to hit the shelves. The monster-hunting crew are back for some more bloodshed as you try to rescue innocent people and destroy all the evil creatures.

MONSTROUS

The controls are the same so the game remains easy to pick up and play, and it uses the Expansion Pak to provide more detailed graphics. There are loads of secrets to discover and a whole load of monsters ready to be wiped out. It seems to play faster than previous versions but essentially, Turok 3 is more of the same. If you liked the other Turok games then this will be a great addition to your collection.

GAME OF THE MONTH

ISS MILLENNIUM

Football doesn't get much better than ISS, and once again the game has received a modern update. ISS Millennium has kept all the great gameplay that made it so popular before and a few new features have been added. The control system takes a little while to get used to, but once you've discovered what each of the buttons can do, you'll love it.

GOOOOAAA!

There are plenty of international teams to choose from, although the names have been changed to protect the innocent... or to save a whole load of money. If you have one of the earlier ISS games, then don't bother getting this new version as the changes are very slight. If you haven't then this is just the best footy game for the N64 and you should grab a copy while you can.

DREAMCAST

SEGA HAS HAD A BUSY YEAR AND ITS ONLINE GAMING STRATEGY HAS JUST STARTED TO TAKE OFF. MORE AND MORE GREAT GAMES ARE APPEARING FOR THE DREAMCAST. BUT IS IT TOO LATE?

NEWS

Bleem, the company who won a court battle with Sony over the production of a PlayStation PC emulator, is set to launch a new product called Bleem for Dreamcast. The emulator will allow Dreamcast owners to play a set list of 400 PlayStation games on their Dreamcasts, opening up a whole new world of gaming for DC owners.

Sega is about to launch a new online experience called Fantasy Star Online. The game, which should be ready early next year, will break down language barriers and enable you to play against Japanese gamers without any need to learn their language. This breakthrough will certainly help to boost the online capabilities of the machine.

VIRTUA TENNIS

DEVELOPER .....SEGA
PRICE £39.99

Tennis is a very popular summer sport, as it can be very difficult to play in the rain. However, there's no longer any need to worry what the weather will be like as with Virtua Tennis you can grab your racket and enjoy a game at any time of year without having to get all hot and sweaty.

The graphics are just superb and from a distance you'd be fooled into thinking you are watching highlights of the centre court action at Wimbledon. All your favourite players are included and the gameplay is very smooth and fast, making this a game that you could happily pick up and play at any time. Sports games are always popular, but you'd be hard pushed to find a better one than this!

FERRARI 355

DEVELOPER .....SEGA
PRICE £39.99

Seeing a Ferrari on the road is a sheer delight, but to take one onto the race track for some serious fun is a dream that few of us will ever get to realise. Thankfully, though, thanks to the programming genius of Yu Suzuki, the master who brought us the original Out Run, a new Ferrari game is set to appear on the Dreamcast.

Ferrari 355 is a serious racing simulator and tries to create the buzz of flying around the racetrack in one of the world's finest sports cars. The graphics are wonderful and the overall feel is simply incredible, making you want to jump straight back in the driving seat and take it for another spin. This is as close as you'll get to driving a real Ferrari, and at a fraction of the cost!

PERFECT DARK

DEVELOPER ..... RARE
PRICE £24.99

The follow up to GoldenEye on the N64 has been a big seller this summer and now Rare has made ready a portable version for Game Boy owners. The game is full colour and features a rumble facility for added realism. There are a wide range of solo missions and also deathmatch gameplay against friends using the link lead. This is the first time the Game Boy has had a decent first-person shooting game and boy, is it good.

SOUNDS AMAZING

Packed into this tiny cartridge are seven massive solo missions, plus over twenty multiplayer deathmatch arenas. The graphics are clear and easy to see and the button configuration is extremely well put together, making it really easy to get to grips with.

For the first time ever, real speech has been put into the code and your Game Boy actually talks to you – pretty cool, we think you'll agree. All wrapped up, this is an awesome game that definitely deserves a place in your Game Boy!

AUSTIN POWERS

DEVELOPER ..... ROCKSTAR
PRICE £24.99

Flare wearing, super-groovy spy Austin Powers is about to jump onto the small screen in two new games for Game Boy Color. Oh Behave and Welcome to my Underground Lair will be released shortly and should bring the swinging spy into action like you've never seen before. We can't wait!

YEAH BABY

There are several games on each cartridge including Othello and a Pacman-style maze game, all wrapped up in a strange personal computer-style system. You can customise your desktop and play around with loads of funky images, as well as playing the colourful, fun games. They're totally groovy baby!

CARD NEWS!

Gym Heroes Expansion 1 is about to be released, which includes all the cards used by the Pokémon Gym Leaders. The set was called Gym Leaders 1 in Japan, but will officially be called Gym Heroes for the US and UK markets. There are 96 cards to collect in this set including 16 rare holofoil cards and 16 rare non-holographic cards. The cards are based in smaller sections with each Gym Leader having their very own special Pokémon cards and Trainer cards. The Leaders included in the first expansion are:

- BROCK
- MISTY
- TEAM ROCKET
- LT SURGE
- ERIKA

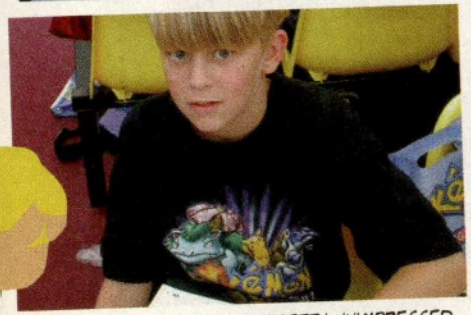
The Pokémon Trading Card Game has been touring the country recently, providing young trainers with an opportunity to learn the game from the pros. Recently the tour arrived on Pier Approach in Bournemouth and POKÉMON WORLD went along for a grand day out to see exactly what was going on.

JUDGING BY JEM'S EXPRESSION, HE'S JUST SEEN THE PERFECT WAY TO WIN... EITHER THAT OR HE'S ABOUT TO LET ONE RIP!

DESPITE THE SUNSHINE, THE POKÉMON FANATICS WERE HEADING INDOORS!



THE VISITORS WERE ALL PRETTY UNIMPRESSED BY RUSS'S CLAIMS OF "I AM THE MASTER!"

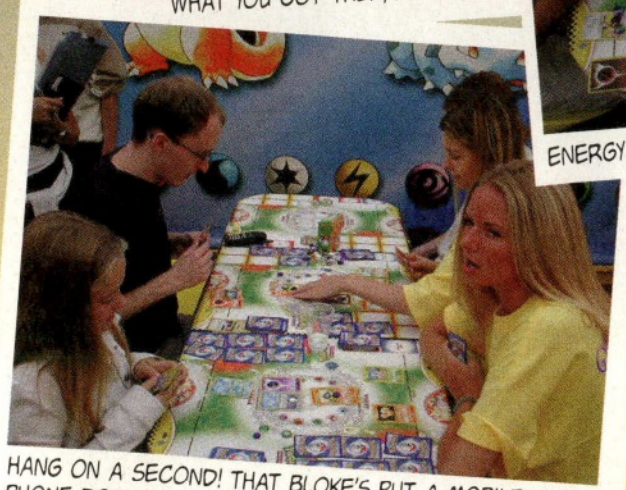
Every guest at the venue was given a free goodie bag containing a promo Mew card and activity sheets which when completed, counted for points for all those who have joined the Pokémon Trading Card League. Local stores in every area nation-wide are running small leagues for local kids, and by asking your nearest card retailer, you should be able to find one near you. Wizards Of The Coast supply activities on a weekly basis and everyone helps teach starters how to play the game and how to get a fair swap.

THE GIANT TENT WAS BRIMMING WITH POKEMANIACS - AND A FEW MUMS!

"WHAT YOU GOT THEN, MATE?"

ENERGY! MUST... HAVE... ENERGY!

At the event there were plenty of staff teaching people how to play the Pokémon Trading Card Game, along with areas for trading and completing activities. Once players were confident, there was also an area for experienced trainers where a chance to battle the Gym Leaders was on offer. All in all, the event was a massive success and over 5,000 people attended.



HANG ON A SECOND! THAT BLOKE'S PUT A MOBILE PHONE DOWN AS A PRIZE. THAT CAN'T BE RIGHT!

Eventually, after finishing activities and playing several games in the league, you'll earn enough points to be awarded with your first trainer badge – just like Ash in the cartoon!

"OOH, DON'T WANT THIS BOGEY IN MY PHOTO - I'LL JUST HAVE A QUICK WIPE!"

The Pokémon Trading Card League is starting to get more and more regular attendees, and there are several events lined up for the future... we'll keep you posted!
